Mr. Kronberg studied at the Museum of

Fine Arts, Boston; the Art Students' League, New York; the Academie Julian, Paris. He was awarded the Longfellow Traveling Scholarship from 1894 to 1897. His interest in the stage has led to his great success in depicting the life of the ladies of the ballet. His works are owned by Boston Museum, Metropolitan Museum, Pennsylvania Academy, Chicago Art Institute, Mrs. J. L. Gardner, Boston, and others. He was awarded the silver medal at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco and was elected an associé of The Salon National, Paris, 1921.
